EVENTS

I anchored the event of training the staff at Ondo State Olusegun Agagu University of Science and Technology on the use of their Human Resource Management Software.

SOME SELECTED PROJECTS

React Portfolio App

This is a Responsive Portfolio site, using theme customization functionality that stores theme state/value in the browsers local storage. This saves user theme settings even if they close their browser or refresh the page. It also includes a convenient Contact Options (WhatsApp, messenger, mail). Each portfolio project can be filtered based on user choice (Filterable portfolio projects). This App also has a smooth Floating Navbar for tablets and mobile devices.

ePersman

ePersman is a human resource management system meant to help organizations manage their different businesses with ease while offering the flexibility of control and access at different levels based on the organization's structure. I gained deep knowledge of Modern frontend design under the guardian of my senior colleagues (Senior Software Developers) while adding different modules and functionalities.

Fagbo Grils App

This is an ongoing project in ReactJS, (to be completed with NodeJS). An educational application that facilitates rural students' learning. It allows students to learn the concept of Web Development from anywhere and there progress will be calculated using a checker on the App.
